Message from the President

That's right, it's me again. I have been given the opportunity to serve a second term as the Ohio Society President and I truly see this as a great privilege and opportunity. I'm privileged in that the last time a Society President served two terms was 1913 and I appreciate the vote of confidence. It's an opportunity in that I believe I can leverage all I learned in my first term and hopefully make more constructive headway in the second.

When I spoke to the OHSSAR Board of Management following the recent elections, I spoke about the inherent challenges any volunteer organization faces when they only meet quarterly and experience a new leadership team every year. This is no easy task but we do have our guiding objectives (Patriotic, Historical and Educational) to help us meet these challenges. Therefore, to help mitigate those challenges and keep us moving forward, I will keep my goals the same and in doing so we can to maintain continuity with the accomplishments of the past couple years and do what we can to move things even further along.

Therefore, my Goals for the 2017-2018 term are simple and remain unchanged:

- Increase membership and improve the number of annual Compatriot renewals.
- Reinforce our patriotic, historical and educational programs.
- Strengthen the operations of the Society.
- Maintain a balanced budget and improve the funding stream for operations.
- Broaden Compatriot participation in state activities and governance.

I want to thank the entire Board of Management for their dedicated service and diligent efforts over the past year. Your efforts are truly noteworthy and help make us one of the most successful and productive Societies in the nation.

128th Annual Ohio Society State Conference

The Ohio Society 128th Annual Conference was held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Blue Ash—Cincinnati, Ohio from Friday, May 5th through Sunday, May 7th.

Friday evening featured an excellent dinner with a presentation by G.L. Corum on The Revolutionary Roots of the Underground Railroad, followed by a meeting of the Ohio Society Executive Committee. The OHSSAR Ladies' Auxiliary gathered for social time in the hospitality room, which they graciously hosted throughout the conference.

On Saturday, the agenda started early with the Board of Management Meeting followed by the Annual Meeting, where elections for 2017-2018 Society Leadership took place. This year we also held the election for the Central District Vice-President General, 2018-2019. The Ladies' Auxiliary also held their Annual Meeting and elections. An excellent luncheon followed the meetings.

Saturday afternoon's activities including the judging of the entries for the state's Elementary School Poster Contest, the Middle School Brochure Contest and the conduct of the Douglass G. High Oration Contest.

The Annual Awards Banquet concluded the evening and included numerous guests of honor including: NSSAR Secretary General Larry T. Guzy, NSSAR Central District Vice-President General Tom Payne, Ohio Society DAR Vice-Regent Nancy Schirm-Wright and many others. Secretary General Guzy delivered an outstanding keynote address, following which were presentations of youth program, appreciation, member recognition, and the Samuel Hubbard Scott Lau-

Samuel Hubbard Scott Laureate Award

James D. Schaffer

Compatriot James D. Schaffer was announced as the winner of the coveted Samuel Hubbard Scott Laureate Award at the 128th Annual Ohio Society State Conference

Samuel Hubbard Scott, a compatriot from Toledo, Ohio, whose qualities are an exemplar of those sought in an outstanding compatriot, is the individual who was behind the Award. It is the highest and most prestigious award the Ohio Society, alone, can give to an Ohio Compatriot. This special award was created in 1979, and was awarded for the first time at the 1979 Conference in Cleveland. The award is presented annually to the compatriot who, in the opinion of the selection committee, best exemplifies the purpose and objectives of the Society. Any compatriot is eligible.

The most recent recipient of the award is the chairman of the committee to select the new awardees. All other living recipients are automatically members of this committee. Compatriot Schaffer was presented with the award by Compatriot Steven R. Kelley, last year's recipient.

Ohio Society Goals Set for 2017-2018

It has been the past practice of the incoming president to prepare a strategy for the ensuing leadership term. For purposes of continuity, my intent is to keep the coming year's goals the same as last year's.

Therefore, the five goals I will pursue as a part of our 2016-2017 strategy are::

1. Increase membership and improve the number of annual Compatriot renewals.
2. To reinforce our patriotic, historical, and educational programs.
3. To strengthen the operations of our Society.
4. Maintain a balanced budget and improve the funding stream for operations.
5. Broaden Compatriot participation in State activities and governance.

A variable action plan which will serve to coordinate necessary tasks has been developed. The plan, assigning tasks and responsibilities, will be supported by the operating budget, committee assignments, and other appointments which have been approved by the Board of Management.

The Action Plan will be used throughout the year as a working document by the Executive Committee and changes will be made as deemed necessary.

It is important to the accentuate the strengths of our Society, as well as to address our weaknesses. While year-to-year plans are beneficial, long range organizational planning should become part of our vision for the future.

Elementary School Poster Contest

The judging of the entries for the Ohio Society State Poster Contest occurred at the 128th Annual Ohio Society State Conference. The first place award went to Paige Gooding, who entered the contest through the Cincinnati Chapter. State contest chairman Robert Davis presented the certificate and award to Cincinnati Chapter President John H Bredenfoerder, who accepted on behalf of Paige.

The second place award went to Lilly Luce (Northeastern Ohio Chapter); and the third place award went to Jakin Bass, (Hocking Valley Chapter).

Middle School Brochure Contest

Winners of the Sgt. Moses Adams Memorial Middle School Brochure state contest were announced at the 128th Annual OHSSAR State Conference. The first place award went to Lily E. Purks (Western Reserve Society). The certificate and monetary award, presented by state contest chairman Dr. Charles E. Finley, was accepted on her behalf by Compatriot Ted Minier of the Western Reserve Society.

The second place winner was Madelyn E. Torrans (Cincinnati Chapter).

Eagle Scout Scholarship

At the OHSSAR 128th Annual State Conference, Eagle Scout Isaac James Cooper was announced as the winner of the state society's Arthur M. & Berdena King Eagle Scout award. Compatriot Lance Beebe, state chairman of the contest, presented the award at the Saturday evening awards banquet. Cooper entered the competition through the state's Northeastern Ohio Chapter.

The Eagle Scout contest is open to all Eagle Scouts who are currently registered in an active unit and have not reached their 19th birthday during the year of application. This program provides an opportunity to recognize and reward achievements of outstanding young Americans, future leaders of our nation and potential compatriots of the SAR.

Summer BOM Meeting & Fort Laurens Memorial

Once again, the Ohio Society will combine its Summer Executive Committee and Board of Management Meeting with the Fort Laurens Memorial Service. The two day event is scheduled for Friday & Saturday, July 28th & 29th, in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. Details and registration information is found within this newsletter.

We have reserved a block of sleeping rooms at the Sleep Inn in Bolivar, as we have for the past several years and the meetings at the Firehouse Grille & Pub in nearby Zoar, about 2 1/2 miles from the hotel. The Society has used this facility in the past when it was under the name of the Zoar Tavern. The Executive Committee, Board of Management, and Ladies' Auxiliary will hold their meetings at the restaurant. This year's events will also coincide with the Zoar Harvest Festival.

The Memorial Service at the Fort Laurens Historic Site in Bolivar will be the same as last year, however the start time has been adjusted to allow for the additional travel time from Zoar. The event is being chaired this year by Compatriots Donald C. McGraw and Richard L. Fetzer.

The speaker for the Memorial Service this year will be former NSSAR Past-President General Michael Tomme. Included will be the presentation of National Colors by the OHSSAR Combined Color Guard, wreath-laying, and a flintlock musket salute. A detailed announcement is available at www.ohssar.org.

Anyone who intends to present a wreath is requested to notify Don McGraw at donald.c.mcgraw@gmail.com. Color guardsmen need to contact OHSSAR Color Guard Commander Tony Robinson at wrobinson3@columbus.rr.com. This event is considered a NSSAR national event for SAR members. The event is open to the public. DAR and C.A.R. participation is encouraged.

Outstanding JROTC Cadet Award

At the OHSSAR 128th Annual State Conference, Cadet 1st Lieutenant Hailey Cydrus of the U.S. Marine Corps JROTC was awarded the Silver Outstanding JROTC Cadet award and medallion for 2017. Cadet Cydrus is a member of the USMC JROTC Unit at Springfield High School in Springfield, Ohio. The award was presented by OHSSAR ROTC/JROTC Service Academies Committee Chairman, Major (Ret) Terry A. Whetstone, USAF.

Patriotic Essay Contest Winner

At the OHSSAR 128th State Conference, the first place winner of the George S. and Stella M. Knight Essay Contest was announced as Ethan F. Marsh, who was sponsored by the state's George Rogers Clark Chapter, based in Springfield, Ohio. The award was presented to Ethan by contest committee chairman and state society president, Col. (Ret) Donald C. McGraw, and George Rogers Clark Chapter secretary Terry A. Whetstone.

Marsh's essay, titled "The Patriotic Audacity of Alexander Hamilton", was chosen for the first place award from amongst 92 entries statewide. The second place winner was Rachel Jablonski (At-Large Chapter); and the third place award went to Sara Petron (Cincinnati Chapter).

Oration Contest Winner

At the OHSSAR 128th State Conference, the first place winner of the Joseph S. Rumbaugh Historical Oration Contest was Isaiah Paik, who was sponsored by the state's Western Reserve Society. The award was presented to Isaiah by contest committee chairman Jack Bredenfoerder.

The second place winner was Madaline Sifford (Hocking Valley Chapter); the third place award went to Madison Their (Cincinnati Chapter); and an award for Merit was presented to Marissa Jo Sementilli (Lt George Ewing Chapter).

The Oration Contest is open to all high school students in public, parochial, private or home schools. The student presents an original 5-6 minute speech based on original research that details an event, person, philosophy or ideal associated with the American Revolution, Declaration of Independence or the framing of the Constitution.
